

DESTINATION ARCHITECT

SEPTEMBER 2021

Dive Into the Latest Edition of NCARB by the Numbers

We've expanded our data to provide a detailed look at how race and ethnicity impact examination pass rates, time to licensure, and more.

ON THE BLOG

Meet the President: Alfred Vidaurri Jr.

We sat down with FY22 NCARB President Alfred Vidaurri Jr., NCARB, NOMA, FAIA, to discuss his vision for the organization—including his focus on the future of licensure and improving representation.

Belonging in Architecture

Architect Farah Ahmad reflects on her journey in architecture as a Pakistani-American Muslim woman, and offers advice for how both candidates and firms can foster a more inclusive profession.

NCARB Vocabulary 101

The path to licensure is full of acronyms and special terms—find out what they all mean in our short guide.

ARE 5.0 NEWS

Understanding Pass Rates by Demographics

NCARB recently released exam pass rates filtered by candidates' race, ethnicity, gender, and age. Learn more about the disparities and how we're resolving them.

Migration to PSI Update and Rolling Clock Extension

NCARB is transitioning from Prometric to PSI in early 2022. Learn more about key dates, plus an additional extension to the rolling clock due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Prometric Mask Reminder

Prometric continues to require candidates testing in person to wear a mask throughout the duration of their appointment. Read Prometric's current policy.

LICENSING ADVISORS

Get Help on the Path to Becoming an Architect With a Licensing Advisor!

Licensing advisors are volunteers who can help you navigate the path to licensure and reciprocity. Learn how to find yours.

Find Your Licensing Advisor

Did you know your local licensing advisor can help guide you along the path to becoming an architect? Contact yours for help navigating your education, experience, and exam requirements.

National Council of Architectural Registration Boards

1401 H Street NW Suite 500
Washington, DC 20005

