DESTINATION ARCHITECT

January 2022

Should you test in person or online?

Find out which Architect Registration Examination® (ARE®) delivery method is right for you with our helpful guide. Plus, read advice for taking an online exam from a licensure candidate.

ON THE BLOG

Tips for Starting the AXP

Whether you're preparing to start the Architectural Experience Program® (AXP®) or already documenting professional experience, these tips can help you make the most of your hard work.

Answers to Your Most Common Questions About Earning a License

From verifying your degree in your NCARB Record to getting exam eligibility, read our expert answers to your FAQs.

Find Inspiration: Read Our Architect Spotlight Series

Check out success stories from recently licensed architects, including what inspired them to pursue architecture and what advice they have for emerging professionals.

ARE 5.0 NEWS

New Scholarship for Black Licensure Candidates

Learn more about a new scholarship opportunity for Black or African American candidates taking the ARE.

Prometric Mask Reminders

Prometric continues to require candidates testing in person to wear a mask throughout the duration of their appointment. Read Prometric's current policy.

National Council of Architectural Registration Boards
1401 H Street NW Suite 500
Washington, DC 20005