

NATIONAL ARCHITECT

A newsletter for NCARB-certified architects

SEPTEMBER 2022

FEATURED BLOG POST

Next Steps for Establishing Reciprocity for Architects Between the U.S. and U.K »

In June 2022, NCARB's member licensing boards ratified a new reciprocity agreement between NCARB and our counterpart in the United Kingdom, the Architects Registration Board (ARB). Learn more about what happens next.

FREE CONTINUING EDUCATION

Getting to Yes: Making Effective Use of the Alternate Means Process »

Our featured course explores the provisions for alternate materials and methods requests in the International Building Code and how they may be used to achieve code compliance.

Analysis of Practice—What's Next? »

Earlier this year, thousands of architects participated in NCARB's once-in-a-decade Analysis of Practice study, exploring the current and future practice of architecture. Find out what's next for our ambitious project.

NCARB Scholars: Going Further for Architectural Education »

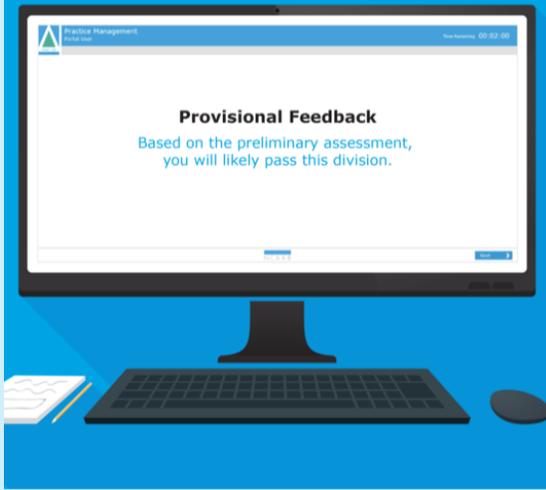

Learn more about our NCARB Scholars event, where 15 professional practice professors from architecture programs across the United States gathered for an intensive three-day training program.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Serve on a Licensing Board »

Shape the future of architecture by serving on your local licensing board! The following boards are seeking new members: Colorado, Illinois, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin. Find out if you qualify, and contact council-relations@ncarb.org for more information.

How to View Provisional Feedback for the ARE »

If you supervise a licensure candidate who's taking the Architect Registration Examination® (ARE®), share a quick overview with them of the steps to view provisional feedback before exiting the exam.

Top 10 Tips to Consider Before Pursuing Your Architect License »

Many people understand the value of an architecture license, but not everyone understands the ins and outs of NCARB's programs or the time commitment that goes into becoming an architect. We asked members of our community to tell us about their unique experiences on the licensure path and the wisdom they've gained since. Check out what they had to say!

National Council of Architectural Registration Boards

1401 H Street NW Suite 500
Washington, DC 20005

